Quaker Settlers, Innovators, & Industry

10 am Sunday March 31

Birmingham Meeting
1245 Birmingham Rd
West Chester, PA 19382

FREE!

The event begins with 10 am worship, followed by a talk by David Cole, Director of The Hagley Museum, at the rise of Meeting, and closing with a visit to 1704 William Brinton House.

William Brinton was the first Quaker to settle in the Brandywine area and participated in the founding of Birmingham Meeting and the growth of the Brandywine settlement. The 1704 House replaced an early log cabin.
